

The Basset Hound Club
&
The South of England Basset Hound Club

Breed Appreciation Day
(Compliant with The Kennel Club Code of Best Practice for Breed Appreciation Days with Multiple Choice Breed Specific Examination)

At
Steventon Village Hall, The Green, Steventon, Abington. OX13 6RR
On 26th November 2023
Breed speakers Tina Watkins (Blackvein) & Colin Gillanders (Helmsdown)

- The Breed Appreciation Day (BAD) is open to ALL.
- The Multiple-Choice Breed Specific Examination (MCE) is restricted to Candidates who have attended the BAD, on the day, and who have completed all of the criteria in JEP(BS) Level 1 OR judges who already award CCs in another breed and attended the BAD, on the day.
- The A3 Judges Assessment is restricted by number and is open to those following the traditional, Grandfathering Route and who are on a Basset Hound Breed Club A3 or B list. If you are on a Breed Club A3 or B List, and you have already attended an old-style Breed Specific Seminar with written exam, you may use this instead of the BAD with MCE. Certificates must be shown to the Organiser when booking (scanned copies will be sufficient).
- The cost includes light refreshments throughout the day
- Please note. Lunch will NOT be provided. Candidates, please bring their own lunch.
- All places must be pre-booked and paid for with your booking by 26th October 2023
